Shawville, 9 Oct., 1974

Dear Burleigh;

Your letter of Oct. 3rd received. Thanks for welcome to Bay of Quinte - but it will not be until 1976 we will be settling in Bloomfield.

Re your trip to Schoharie County, N.Y. - I do not have information re hours at Old Fort Museum. The best suggestion I have to offer is that you contact the following man who is a professional Genealogist and would know hours in which the Museum is open, could advise you re the records at Middleburg Library, and inform you re accomodations.

GEORGE H. RYON, P.O. Box 550, MIDDLEBURG, N.Y. 12122.
(I do not have his phone number but advise you to call person-to-person.)

At bottom of this letter is a few items you should look for in the Mohawk Valley.

Hope you can go and get some valuable data.

Best regards to you and Mrs. B. and family,

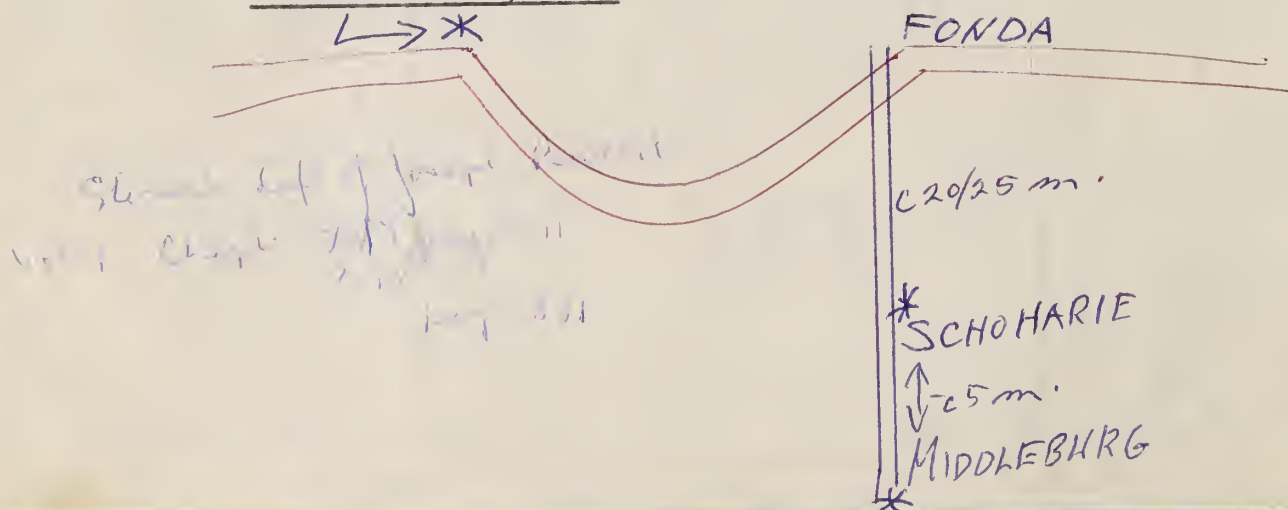

Gord.

Deaths and Funerals

Alice May Sills

Alice May Sills, 90, of 322 Brock St., who died recently at St. Mary's of the Lake Hospital following an extended illness, was buried at Sydenham Cemetery.

She was born at Godfrey, the third child of the late Wesley Freeman and his wife, the former Harriet Rowson, but had been a Kingston resident for 30 years.

Previously, she resided at Godfrey where she received her early education and became a seamstress, and in Sydenham following her marriage.

She and her husband, Edward Bertrand Sills, who predeceased her in 1967, were Kingston residents for 30 years. For the past two years, Mrs. Sills was at Extencicare-Kingston and St. Mary's of the Lake Hospital.

Mrs. Sills attended Queen Street United Church.

She leaves a daughter, Harriet; a son, Harold, and a grandson, Peter John, all of Kingston.

Additional survivors are three sisters, Millicent Merriman, Kingston; Gertrude Kennedy and Nellie Kennedy, both of Godfrey.

She was predeceased by a sister, Mrs. Mabel Cox, and four brothers, William, Jack, Harry and Bert Freeman.

Rev. John Hoskins of Queen Street United Church officiated at a funeral service assisted by her nephew, Rev. Wilbert Cox of Peterborough.

Pallbearers were her nephews Norman Merriman, Gordon Kennedy, Cecil Freeman, Ed Burrows, Ronald MacPherson and Needham Throop.

Ted Wellar and Ken Podgers, all members of the Lions Club.

WILLIAM M. MOSIER

William Marshall Mosier, 92, of RR 1 Inverary, who died recently in Bracebridge, Ont., was buried at Glenhaven Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Mosier was a farmer until his retirement in 1957. He was born on Wolfe Island, the son of Romain Mosier and Mercy Kyes. He lived there until 1953 when he moved to Inverary.

Mr. Mosier attended Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses and counted travel among his interests, having spent his last three winters in Florida.

Surviving are four sons, Ray, Kingston; Floyd, North Bay; Carl, Bonifay, Florida; Anso, Inverary; a daughter, Mrs. William (Ilah) Long, Napanee; a brother, Ward Mosier, Kingson and a sister, Mrs. Harry (Louise) Davis, Kingston.

He was predeceased by four sisters, four brothers, 12 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were three nephews, Robert Mosier, Glen Mosier and Ralph Edgar, and James McAllister, Howard Watts, Norman Ritchie. 9 June 1976
